Wharf To Be Prepared For Ferry

Federal department of public works is carrying out minor adjustments to the ferry wharf at the end of Beacon Ave. to permit M.V. Island Princess to dock at the ramp, formerly used by State of Washington Ferries.

At present the vessel, which sails to Sidney from Steveston and the Gulf Islands four times weekly, is docked at the eastern extremity of the wharf.

March newsletter of the ferry operators notes an increase in traffic handled since the connection with Sidney was established.

Efforts are being made to extend the period during which the vessel remains at Sidney. Motorists are reminded in the newsletter that reservations may be made for transport of cars from Sidney to islands ports and Steveston.

Tax Hike Sees Rush For Permits

Gasoline tax hike is bringing a quick response in North Saanich. The local assistant fire marshal, Fire Chief G. A. Gardner has been swamped in a wave of applications for permission to store gasoline for agricultural and marine purposes. Gasoline may not be kept on any premises, beyond one can, unless a written permit has been obtained.

There is no provision in the Fire Marshal's Act for the storage of gasoline for general automotive purposes.

Display Of Defence Projects

Insight into the preparations planned by the Dominion government in its guard against injury in the event of war was illustrated last week at a display at St. Joseph's Hospital in Victoria.

An advance treatment centre was shown, complete with all the supplies which are available to such a unit. The centre would offer first-aid to the injured in a nuclear war.

Two such centres are planned for the Sidney area, although details have not yet been completed.

Annual Meeting Of Saanich Fruit Growers' Association

Saanich Fruit Growers Association held its 42nd annual general meeting on March 20. The association completed a successful year, reports Herbert Bickford, who was elected to his fifth term as president.

Other members of the board of directors are: vice-president, T. Dixon Holloway; directors, T. G. Michell, E. R. Heal, G. McCarthy, G. A. Doney and A. Benn.

This co-operative markets 95 per cent of the small fruits produced on Vancouver Island, centred mainly on the Saanich Peninsula. The strawberry market was satisfactory, carlots going to the western provinces, with approximately 350 tons sold for jam manufacture.

The president advised the meeting that production of loganberries is increasing faster than the present market will take.

An advertising campaign will be erection of a new building on the association's property, for the receiving and shipping of wine berries, started to popularize this fruit on the prairie market.

The Growers Wine Co., who takes 50 per cent of the loganberry crop each year, have arranged for the this will be started immediately.

First Humming Birds Are Here

Deep Cove bird watcher reported the first hummingbirds on March 24 and 25.

Although the tiny, brilliant birds are returning to their summer nesting grounds on Vancouver Island very early this year, their appearance was even earlier some years ago when they arrived on March 17

Lancashiremen Are Clanny

The Lancashiremen are gregarious individuals.

In a series of advertisements appearing in The Review each member of the staff of the Bank of Montreal in Sidney is depicted with a brief history of his background.

When Paul Wade was the subject of the weekly series, his connection with Lancashire was indicated.

In one day, following the publication, 13 people in the bank introduced themselves to him as natives of Lancashire.

Not only are there many Lancashiremen here still interested in the place of their birth, but a goodly number read The Review.

By-law Dispute Spreads To Trustees As Gymnasium Debate Brings Sparks

—Chairman Resigns And Resumes

Smouldering resentment which has developed in Saanich School District between the two schools of thought on the preparation of a by-law burst into flame on Monday evening when the same split was evident through the middle of the board of trustees. While the two trustees from Sidney and North Saanich urged the presentation of a by-law omitting a gymnasium or auditorium, three other trustees were vociferous in their advocacy of the provisions. In the heat of the dispute the chairman resigned in protest, only to resume his office, while a trustee stated that he had no faith in the figures supplied to the board and appealed for the answer to questions he had been asking, he averred, for the past 12 months.

The discussion opened when Trustee Capt. Jack Rowton asked for a firm ruling as to whether provincial government assistance would be forthcoming for a high school which was provided with neither industrial arts nor home economics facilities.

Facilities have to be provided, replied Chairman Reginald Sinkinson. "My personal opinion is that they are not compulsory," he added, "but I feel the department would frown on it."

Principal of Royal Oak high school, John Clarke was asked what proportion of students in grade 11 took home economics and industrial arts. The figure was 60 to 70 per cent, said the school principal.

"Is this for amusement?" asked Lewis Harvey. "or for usefulness in later life?"

Every project undertaken in the shop is part of the overall curriculum, replied Mr. Clarke, and is desirable and useful learning experience.

The Deep Cove trustee suggested that such activities should be undertaken as an extra-curricula study. "We have battered this around for over a year," exclaimed Capt. Rowton, "can we have a committee established to investigate?"

On the motion of Capt. Rowton and A. H. Rowbottom, the committee was approved. On Tuesday the committee, consisting of D. E. Woods, Cuthbert Brown and Lewis Harvey attended upon the department of education to ascertain the answer to a number of questions.

"We won't get a direct answer," warned Mr. Sinkinson. "They'll tell us, as they have so often done in the past, that it is a matter of local autonomy . . . you can and you can't!"

Mr. Brown recalled that the board had been told that a school could not be built without an auditorium and now they had learned that it could.

"We've been told the same thing on home economics and industrial arts," commented Capt. Rowton, "and I want to know."

The matter was left over until the committee reports back.

Await Official Action

Expressing sympathy for the trustees of Saanich School District who are at present preparing a new by-law for presentation, Sidney P.T.A. expressed the fear that, in all likelihood neither of the proposed by-laws will receive the approval of the ratepayers.

The association last week forwarded a letter to the school board suggesting that "in view of the recommendations of the Chant Report, there is need for further study of the type of school accommodation which should be provided for this area."

It was suggested that temporary alleviation of the over-crowding in schools should be sought rather than present a new by-law immediately. The association felt that an attempt be made to discover to what extent the department of education will implement the Chant Report before a new by-law is prepared.

Liberal Speaks At Sidney

Main dining room of Hotel Sidney was well filled on Tuesday evening when residents of North Saanich and Central Saanich turned out in numbers to hear Captain David Groos, Liberal candidate for Esquimalt-Saanich in the forthcoming federal by-election, discuss campaign issues. The meeting was presided over by Dr. C. H. Hemmings, who introduced the speaker.

The candidate charged that the federal government, although not solely responsible for the present economic recession, has not come to grips with the problem realistically. One out of seven working Canadians is now unemployed. These persons with no jobs and no pay are the direct responsibility of the government, he declared. "They are ready to go to work any time they are asked—but they haven't been asked as yet," he asserted.

Captain Groos urged that a Liberal government would be seeking every means to stimulate export trade by reductions of tariffs and in other ways.

NEWCOMERS FROM VICTORIA AREA

Mr. and Mrs. G. Strickland recently moved from Victoria to reside in their new home on Weller Ave. Mr. Strickland is a steward on the M.V. Sidney. When he has time he is interested in photography, which is Mrs. Strickland's hobby.

Flying Club Faces Big Boost In Cost Of Operation Here

Victoria Flying Club faces a major increase in the costs of its operation. It shares this obstacle with many similar clubs across the Dominion.

For the past many years flying clubs, operating as a non-profit group, have been granted rentals of available hangars at a nominal figure. That arrangement has now been terminated and the rental has risen to nearly $10,000 annually.

The nominal rental was established by the Liberal government following the Second World War. Flying clubs across the country had been engaged in training military pilots and a credit amounting to some $6 millions had accumulated with the federal government.

The government offered the rental arrangement if the clubs would relinquish claim on this money. For the next several years the clubs maintained that amicable arrangement.

Former Transport Minister George Hees cancelled the arrangement and a new system of rentals has been established by the department of transport.

In some communities flying clubs have acquired hangars from the government, but at Patricia Bay this has been impractical as the club shares its facilities with the department's administration offices.

No Photograph But Here He Is!

The long-discussed Cadborosaurus has yet to be photographed. Nevertheless, one Sidney lady has achieved the next best thing. Mrs. A. R. Stacey, of 9741 Front St., in Sidney, was thoroughly awoken one morning recently when she opened the blinds in her living room and saw a strange monster out in the water. She followed its movements through her binoculars and promptly executed a sketch of "Caddy" in the three positions he occupied while visible from her home. At first she assumed it was a log, but she then noticed that it drifted against the tide. While watching closely she saw a head rise from the water to assume the second position shown, when a seagull settled on the long neck. She took her attention away from the neck to seek the end of the tail. When she glanced again at the neck, the bird had gone and the creature was looking backwards. There was no sign of the seagull in the water or the air and she assumed that it had been eaten.

No Engineer For District In Future

Title of engineer has been abandoned by the Sidney Waterworks District in deference to earlier protests from a professional engineers' group in the province.

For years the water district has named one of its trustees the engineer. Last holder of the title was G. A. Gardner, who retired from the local board recently. Mr. Gardner's title was protested on the grounds that he was not a professional engineer.

In future the same duties will be performed by the "supervisor of works", L. T. Wadhams.

NEW FIRE TRUCK TO BE PUT INTO SERVICE THIS YEAR

—In North Saanich

Acquisition of a new fire truck for Sidney and North Saanich Volunteer Fire Department is planned within the next several months.

This announcement was made on Thursday evening at the annual meeting of the North Saanich Fire Protection District in North Saanich high school.

The new truck, which will be put out to tender in the near future, is planned to be in operation by July if possible.

Total of 17 ratepayers attended the meeting to hear the report of the committee and to elect two new trustees.

Chairman of trustees, Cmdr. F. B. Leigh told the gathering that, considering the vintage of the Ford, a 1933 model, the acquisition of the new fire engine is fully justified. He explained that specifications will be made to invite tenders in the near future.

Taxpayers learned that trustees of the fire district had decided not to charge for emergency ambulance calls. However, it is hoped that people who request the service of the ambulance will donate a sum according to their financial status.

AMBULANCE CALLS

There was a total of 128 ambulance calls during the past year, representing an expense of $322. Donations and charges amounted to $219. Actual cost of $103 to the ratepayers does not include depreciation of the vehicle. Proposal to continue the operation of the ambulance on the same basis as during the last year was unanimously endorsed by the gathering.

During 1960, the Sidney and North Saanich Fire Brigade attended 36 alarms and held 50 fire drills. Fire Chief Gardner expressed deep regret for the resignation of Captain W. Deswick who served the fire department for 16 years. Capt. Deswick has to give up his position due to health reasons. Present strength of the brigade is 18 members.

Brigadier P. Earnshaw was re-elected and Dr. A. G. Moffatt was newly elected to the board of trustees. While the former will represent the Ardmore area the latter will fill the vacancy left by R. M. Adamson, who moved away from the Patricia Bay district. Other members of the board of trustees are Chairman Cmdr. Leigh, J. W. Gibbs and P. S. B. Howard.

Fire committee consists of three trustees, Cmdr. Leigh, Mr. Gibbs, Brigadier Earnshaw and two representatives of the Village of Sidney, Commissioners A. A. Cormack and J. Boshier. The village operates in conjunction with the North Saanich Fire Protection District.

CONCERNED AT NAMES

Fire Chief Gardner expressed deep concern about the frequent changing of road names by the department of highways. He asserted that the least the department should do is to

L. P. Dawes is manager of the association.

STUDENTS' ORCHESTRA

Greater Victoria Schools Orchestra will make its debut in Sidney during intermission at the concert of the Victoria Symphony Orchestra on Tuesday, Apr. 11.

The schools orchestra, which draws its talents from senior high schools in the Greater Victoria area, has approximately 52 members. Conductor is Miss Marie Milburn.

This season's last symphony concert at Sanscha Hall will commence at 8:15 o'clock in the evening.

Blacktop And Play Areas

Trustees were generally agreed that blacktop and covered play areas would be provided where necessary for elementary schools. Details under discussion were listed as "Plan 4" and trustees had been presented with a typewritten copy of the projects envisaged.

At the conclusion of that decision Trustee Jack Southern moved that all consideration of those provisions as well as a new maintenance shop be held over until the senior high school had been settled.

The chairman threw a wrench into the works at this point.

"I have no prior knowledge of this plan which you have before you," he said, "and I have no alternative but to offer my resignation."

Trustees recalled that the chairman was present when it was discussed during an informal discussion to have the figures prepared on a new sheet.

Convinced of the circumstances, the chairman continued without further reference to his proffered resignation.

Expenditures on elementary school classrooms were approved by the board.

Desirable And Feasible

Opening gambit in the debate on construction of a gymnasium was made by A. H. Rowbottom. In answer to a query from the chairman, he stated that a gymnasium was both desirable and financially feasible.

Trustees were advised that the cost of transporting students to Royal Oak for physical education would be equal to the cost of repayments on a structure for that purpose at the projected new high school.

"I personally have no faith in these estimates of transportation," stated Capt. Rowton.

Mr. Harvey felt that it should not be a function of the board to provide entertainment facilities.

Mr. Southern jumped into the fray with both feet.

"It is not an auditorium and it begins with the letter 'G'. There is a big difference," he said.

Capt. Rowton felt that the district could afford neither an auditorium nor a gymnasium. Mill rate in Saanich is already one of the highest in the province, he noted.

"The cost would be represented alternately in the cost of transportation," interpolated Mr. Rowbottom.

"I won't accept that transportation is necessary," retorted Capt. Rowton. "We have never been able to get the truth on any subject."

Inspector McCallan observed that physical education is compulsory in grade 12 and is usual throughout the year.

"Again usual, but not compulsory," noted Capt. Rowton.

Capt. Rowton stated that his understanding was that even if the projected senior high school were to be constructed without home economics or industrial arts facilities, a total of nine rooms would still be required. The superintendent of schools, F. A. McLellan, agreed.

It was generally agreed that a reshuffle of rooms between Royal Oak high school, Royal Oak elementary school and the new high school would permit of the erection of an 11-room school to provide for accommodation of all high school students in the new high school instead of directing the overflow to Royal Oak after the first year. By this means the available accommodation at Royal Oak high school would be made available to the elementary school adjoining. The rooms originally planned at Royal Oak elementary school would then be constructed at the new high school.

Capt. Rowton suggested that the department of education might object to putting grade seven back into a high school.

"It's a hopeless situation," he asserted, "we've been battling it about for a year. Where can we get our information from?"

The chairman waxed sarcastic. "Take a correspondence course, then," he suggested derisively, "why build schools? Just give them a hand saw."

"That's what they need, a hand saw," retorted Capt. Rowton.

The by-law has already been turned down three times on the question of an auditorium or gymnasium, warned Mr. Harvey. A high basement would be equally effective, he added.

The board jumped at the suggestion and the department of education is to be questioned on its acceptability.

P.T.A. WARNED OF DISEASE

Principal Speaks Of Chant Report To P.T.A. Meeting

Report from the principal to Sidney P.T.A. last week included the notice that student teachers will be at the school towards the end of April, and that awards for the essay contest, sponsored by the P.T.A. during Education Week, would be presented, along with citizenship awards, before the Easter recess.

President, Mrs. L. R. Christian, urged members to subscribe to the P.T.A. magazine. In its five issues a year it gives coverage to national trends in education and is well worth the very small cost, she asserted.

Giving her report from the Health Council, Mrs. G. Brody said that the nurse reports that red measles is prevalent here, and suggests inoculation for the younger ones.

Rheumatic fever has been an aftermath of scarlet fever and children should be watched carefully, parents were warned. Home nursing service in the district is not able to give more than two hours a week in any one home, and the need for more practical nurses was stressed. Any-one qualified for this type of work is being urged to register at the Health Unit office in Sidney.

SPORTS DAY

Sidney school sports day has been set for May 12, and the annual P.T.A. Festival, which this year will take the form of a Country Fair, has been scheduled for June 9.

The program for the evening, under the direction of Mrs. W. Robb, dealt with the structure of the B.C. school system as proposed by the Chant Report. An outline prepared by the P.T.A. Federation was presented by the various members of the executive.

Mrs. B. Lassfolk outlined the present system but said that no one was really qualified to discuss the report. She suggested that everyone should read at least the epilogue on the report which presented little publicized facts.

CULLED FROM REPORT

The report includes the findings that the school system of B.C. is excellent; no evidence that misconduct in the schools has increased; a system from any other country could not be transferred completely to B.C.; all countries have problems regarding language and arithmetic courses; some students are indifferent because the work is over their Teachers now teach to the middle of the class even though there is a wide range of ability, concluded the principal.

General conclusion of the meeting was that the province has received the education it has been willing to pay for. A new system will cost more money, and no one yet knows where that money will be found, it was felt.

Local Curlers Take Awards

New Band Gains Big Support

Instruments that have been tucked away for years, musicians who long ago gave up public appearances, and artists who never had the opportunity to join an orchestra, are now being brought together to considerable effect.

The adult music group that meets on Thursday evenings at the North Saanich high school are becoming more enthusiastic each week. More than 20 members, who now turn out regularly, are playing from sets of orchestra music. More instruments are desired, and anyone over school age is being urged to join this orchestral aggregation.

Committee Is Named For New By-law Co-ordination Here

Stanley Oakes has been named provisionally to head a new co-ordinating committee in Saanich School District to represent all organizations in the school district who might be concerned with the forthcoming school building by-law.

The committee was tentatively established last Wednesday evening and an inaugural meeting has been called for Friday evening, April 7, in Mount Newton high school.

Mrs. R. L. Evans is the provisional secretary of the group.

The meeting of ratepayers at which the committee was formulated was called to discuss the presentation of a by-law to provide accommodation falling short of the minimum standards laid down by the department of education. Close concern was expressed by the meeting at the possibility of such a by-law. It was felt that a committee to co-ordinate action in connection with the by-law would serve a valuable purpose. The two officers were named until such time as the representatives of all interested groups in the area might be invited to attend a more fully representative meeting of the school district.

MRS. DAVIES ADDRESSES BRENTWOOD W.A.

Although busy as secretary at the Sidney B of M, Jean Griffiths always has time for a cheery word to customers.

Jean came to Sidney with her parents in 1943 from Benson, where she was born. Later, she travelled to Eastern Canada, working for periods as stenographer in a large steel company in Toronto and an oil company in Sarnia, Ont.

But she returned to Sidney to be with her mother, who lives on Third Street, and joined the B of M in 1958.

When not at the Bank, Jean is a keen gardener. Her particular interest is in raising flowers, roses being her specialty. And, for a change of pace, she enjoys bowling.

DEFEAT IS UNTHINKABLE
RATEPAYERS of Saanich School District are to be faced with a question in the near future. They will be asked at the polls: "Are you in favor of borrowing the arbitrarily established sum of money to provide increased school accommodation?" The question will be more specific, but the ratepayers will tend to meet it generally.

Today the trustees of the school district are preparing the by-law for presentation. They are facing, in their turn, a major problem. Shall the by-law be reduced in its scope to meet the demands of the critics or shall it be fully in accord with the policies of the department of education in offering all facilities visualized by that department? The matter has been sifted and analyzed since the last by-law failure. It has been repeatedly urged by various groups, particularly those in the northern end of the district, that the by-law be reduced to a bare minimum in order to gain the approval of those ratepayers who are more than averagely critical of the department's requirements. In the meantime, a second group, this particularly evident in the southern section, has brought strong pressure to bear on the school board to include every facility. In the middle of this tug-of-war sits the school board. Reason and analysis have long since gone by the board and many in both camps have resorted to an emotional appeal for support.

Where lies the safe path? We can see only one answer, despite bitter criticism from many ratepayers of this stand. Compromise is the only answer. If the board is prepared to compromise in its preparation of the by-law, success is more than probable. If it fails to compromise, then failure is more than likely.

So far there has been evidence of some withdrawal, but by no means a full recognition of the need for meeting the critics half way. Where compromise has broken down we have seen bitter exchanges and little progress. It cannot be argued but that the ratepayers as a body must in all conscience support any by-law which will provide needed school accommodation. At the same time let us see a by-law which goes half way to inviting success. A fourth failure is not only unthinkable. It would be a grave reflection on the trustees of the school district and upon the ratepayers who were unable to see any other path than their own.

ANOTHER NORTH SAANICH FERRY
NEWS reports appearing recently in the daily press suggest that the provincial highways department may be finalizing plans for a long proposed move northward of the present Brentwood-Mill Bay ferry. Survey crews are said to be working at present at Cobble Hill and the government is reported to be planning to move the western terminus northward to that site from Mill Bay.

Where will the new eastern terminus be on the Saanich Peninsula? The government has given no hint of its thinking in this regard as yet. No final decision should, of course, be reached until the matter has been referred to the advisory planning commission which is bound to study such developments and make recommendations.

The North Saanich advisory planning commission was appointed by the minister of municipal affairs. It has a vital role in this community. Such an important matter as location of a new ferry terminus should not be decided by the government without reference to the commission which the government has created for just such a task.

If there is merit to moving the two ferry terminals northward, by all means let us co-operate. But any such development in North Saanich should be considered by the government-appointed planning commission.

THANK YOU, MR. FIREMAN!
RATEPAYERS of North Saanich showed no vital concern with the affairs of the North Saanich Fire Protection District last week when the annual meeting was called. Only a small number of ratepayers attended to hear the annual report. In this instance the lack of interest was a back-handed compliment to the trustees. Still in its infancy, the affairs of the fire district have progressed smoothly and efficiently.

The annual report was pleasing to the majority of ratepayers and reflected an efficient operation. Absence of hundreds of eligible ratepayers represented a silent tribute to the work of the trustees.

The public at large showed little interest in the meeting for its own sake. They perhaps overlooked the fact that the meeting also represented the opportunity for the community to express its appreciation of what the volunteer firemen are doing here.

An expression of the appreciation and gratitude of the community to the firemen was made by the meeting. There can be none in the area to gainsay it. Rather, the remainder of the community is undoubtedly solidly behind the fire district in supporting this vote.

ROAD NAMES
FURTHER and apparently final announcement has been made by the department of highways with reference to the naming of roads in North Saanich. For a time a further confusion will obtain in connection with the location of district homes owing to the approach to this question of naming roads.

In the meantime Fire Chief G. A. Gardner has advanced a recommendation which would solve future problems. The fire chief has urged that road naming be a direct responsibility of the advisory planning commission in North Saanich.

This would be a logical and practical means of avoiding the confusion which has accompanied road names and name changes for the past several years. It is very evident that the provincial department of highways is only mildly interested and certainly not acquainted with the problems presented to the fire department. Perhaps the department will be prepared to shed the burden.

L. J. Armstrong At Helm Of Pender Island Chamber

L. J. Armstrong was re-elected president of the Pender Island Chamber of Commerce, by acclamation, at the annual meeting held on March 22, in the Hope Bay Hall. Competing with TV hockey, head colds and two meetings, held earlier that same day, 42 members turned out to elect the 1961 slate of officers. Mrs. G. A. Scott and Mrs. W. L. Shirley were re-elected vice-president and secretary, respectively. S. P. Corbett was elected treasurer, succeeding Capt. W. J. R. Beech, who resigned for health reasons. Three council members were elected.

School By-law Is Debated

"We are chancing the by-law's failure on the question of a gymnasium," warned Mr. Harvey again. "I'm afraid it might be turned down."

"Is it feasible that the opponents of the provision are not fully conversant with the facts?" asked Mr. Southern, "an auditorium... a frill... a dirty word... could you not sell them on this?"

Mr. Harvey indicated that he had no personal confidence in its value.

"There is no guarantee that the by-law will pass if you put that in," warned Capt. Rowton.

"There is no guarantee that it will pass if you don't," retorted Mr. Simkinson.

The chairman continued to assess the position.

"We have some beautiful red herrings here," he observed. "The blacktop and covered play areas we are graciously prepared to put in would be half the cost of the gymnasium."

The reported statement that a gymnasium need not be included was yet another red herring," he averred.

Mr. Southern suggested that it was a question of whether the by-law would pass. The board had been advised by the department that a gymnasium was necessary. The cost is not high and he felt that it should be put into the by-law.

The Central Saanich trustee then moved that the gymnasium be included in the by-law for the new high school. It was seconded by Mr. Rowbottom, to meet with approval. While the originators of the motion were supported by Mr. Woodsworth, the two North Saanich trustees voted in the negative and Mr. Brown abstained.

Two Home Economics Rooms

Why were there two home economics rooms at North Saanich when in many parts of the province only one room served both purposes? asked Capt. Rowton. Inspector McLeellan explained that the two rooms were more nearly in keeping with departmental policy.

Could not the small science room at North Saanich be converted to the second home economics room and the large home economics room be rebuilt into a science room? asked Mr. Southern. By this means another $17,000 could be saved towards the cost of the gymnasium, he suggested.

The inspector explained that the accommodation was needed at North

Saanich high school.

Mr. Rowbottom suggested that science students at North Saanich

Parents' Course Offered In Saanich School District

March 15 completed a small experiment in parent education in Saanich School District.

Parents of adolescents met for six sessions of two hours to see a film, listen to a speaker and engage in discussion on the ways of the adolescent.

Attendance was limited to couples, since the series was planned to stimulate thought by both parents. Ten couples attended, with a sprinkling of school counsellors, social workers and public health nurses.

Speakers were B. Curtis, U.B.C. Extension; W. T. Lawson, group worker with the Family and Children's Agency; Dr. Ian Kenning, and Dr. Esme Ford and Dr. David Chabassol, both of Victoria College.

The author sums it up very well in his postscript. The Boers said the war was for liberty; the British said it was for equality; the majority of the inhabitants, who were not white at all, gained neither liberty nor equality.

The story is that of the Boer War, now almost forgotten in the shadow of two major world conflicts. Not only was the war fought in an incompetent manner, but it was the turning point of the British military system. The Boer War was the close of the chapter of dashing military officers. War ceased to be a game with the close of the Boer War and its heavy losses on both sides.

The book is a pleasant record of the war, with a detailed account of each action and it will read the more avidly for the light it throws on the South African scene today.—F.G.R.

"Good-Bye Dolly Gray", by Rayne Kruger. Cassell. 513 pp. with index.

During its membership within the British Commonwealth South Africa stood apart from its fellows. The internal upheaval which has existed in the country almost since its original colonization left it far more unsettled than any predominantly white country and probably somewhat less developed than the majority of predominantly colored countries. This book tells the tale of South Africa's upheaval, when a white farmer met white farmer on the field of battle.

Today, the story does not make inspirational reading. It is a tale of military inefficiency and blunder. It is the story of a hard and primitive people fighting in the name of the Lord without pausing to ascertain the possible reaction of the Lord to their flight.

While the Boers were untrained in war and unprepared for the military precision which marked their opponents, the British, in their turn, offered a precision which failed to meet the demands of the country and which lacked intelligent, proper direction.

It was a war which settled little or nothing and one which has left its scars still sore to the present day.

ed for three year-terms, Ralph Smith, D. Hutton and A. MacKinnon, the latter two from South Pender. J. B. Bridge was elected to fill the unexpired two years on council, left vacant when Mr. Corbett resigned to accept the nomination for treasurer.

Bishop M. E. Coleman took the chair for the holding of the election.

The president's annual report revealed a busy year in many fields of endeavour. Some projects had reached successful conclusion, while others were still being pushed forward with vigor.

The secretary urged all members to remember Chamber of Commerce Week, April 16-22, and to work for increased membership especially, at this time.

It was announced that the Islands' group generally, had decided it was too late this year to produce a large, joint publicity folder, advertising the whole area, but that plans were going ahead for such a project in 1962.

Meanwhile, it had been agreed in council that the Pender chamber would produce much the same type of tourist schedule card as last year. An annual event, for fund raising purposes and for entertainment, was discussed and a motion passed that a Penders' Day be held in July. It will be a comparatively modest affair this year, to gain experience for a larger event in 1962.

Following the business session, two color films were enjoyed, "Moose Country", a movie showing the extraordinary beauty of north central British Columbia, and the "Salmon's Struggle for Survival", a graphic presentation of the fascinating life cycle of the salmon and the hazards it encounters in man-made obstacles, industrial pollution and natural enemies. Refreshments were served.

"The government should be in constant consultation with labor and management in an effort to decrease the unit cost of our goods," he said.

During a brisk question period, when his audience showed a keen interest in issues of the day, the candidate answered queries mainly on defence policies. He urged that Canadian services not be equipped with nuclear arms as a shining example to other countries. "The nuclear club to which Britain, the U.S.A., France, Russia and China now belong, is large enough today," he declared.

Following the candidate's address, members of his audience remained to enjoy refreshments and lay plans for the campaign.

"It is no more stupid than transporting students to Royal Oak for gymnasium facilities," he added.

The question was postponed until the committee has interviewed officials of the department of education.

ACROSS MY DESK

REPORT FROM VICTORIA

by JOHN D. T. TISDALLE, M.L.A.

This first session of the 26th Parliament has reached its close, as we take a moment to look back upon the newspaper forecasts and prophetic utterances of the Opposition that the most important debate would be centered around the Welfare Department, the record shows that this has proved to be one of the least volatile of the session.

As a comparison, the estimates of the department of recreation and conservation, took nearly twice as long to pass as those of the department of welfare.

Labor legislation took the spotlight, but as far as personal mail received from individual trade unionists is concerned, they have shown surprising apathy.

The call to arms by the labor leaders has seemingly failed to arouse the spirit of opposition to the Bill by the individual member. One of the major pieces of legislation this session is the new Credit Union Act, which was passed on recommendations by the B.C. Credit Union League following a survey made of Credit Unions in the province by the committee of that league in the summer of 1957. One of the new features is the inclusion of a standard set of rules for Credit Unions, which were already in use, but not part of the old act.

MULTIFACETED

The Bill itself, known as No. 64, is comprehensive and required a good deal of study, having 91 sections, and two extensive schedules. Another very important measure, but less noticeable, this session is the Bill affecting the Unsatisfied Judgment Fund, which is known as an Act to Incorporate Traffic Victims Indemnity Fund. It purports to set up a corporation having power to generally ensure that victims of uninsured or otherwise irresponsible motorists are expeditiously indemnified to the extent prescribed from time to time by or pursuant to the Motor Vehicle Act.

This act will serve the purpose of filling the gap between those who voluntarily insure and those who do not insure their automobiles.

There is a "going away" feeling among the members at present, as each one gathers up accumulated material of the session, and the waste baskets are brimming full as the unnecessary clippings and notes are abandoned.

FORMER NEWFIE COMES TO WATER BOARD WITH MEMORIES OF RAILWAY SERVICE

New member of the Sidney Water Board, Charles L. Hayward, who was recently elected, has been living at 9818 Sixth St., Sidney, for the past four years.

Born in St. John's, Newfoundland, Mr. Hayward retired from the C.N.R. in 1956, after 31 years of service. In Edmonton, Alta., he held the position of a statistician. He is a honorary life member of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees. For several years he served this organization as a financial secretary.

In connection with his work for the railway company, the new water board trustee had many opportunities to enjoy the Canadian west coast, crossing the Rocky Mountains every year for the past three decades.

During the last years of his employment he visited various communities on Vancouver Island scouting for the right place for retirement.

Among all the different beauty spots he found Sidney most appealing. Mr. Hayward and his wife, who hails from Scotland, feel that the Saanich Peninsula offers them everything they longed for.

They find the people in the Sidney community very friendly and emphasize the fact that the village has a good selection of excellent shopping places.

"There is no need for me to go to Victoria," asserts Mr. Hayward, "I haven't been in this city for six months."

In his leisure time the retired railroadman finds enjoyment in wood-carving and on nice, sunny days he likes to ride his bicycle preferring this mode of transportation to an automobile.

Diamond Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Eaton returned to their home, Craigmyle Motel, after attending the diamond wedding anniversary of the former's parents, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. R. B. Eaton, Chilliwack.

For two days relatives and friends congregated at the celebrants' home which was filled with flowers and gifts. Cards, letters and cables conveying good wishes were received from all parts of Canada and England.

Among the cables were messages from Her Majesty the Queen; Prime Minister of Canada; Lieut.-Governor of British Columbia, George R. Pearkes, V.C.; Premier W. A. C. Bennett, members of both houses of Parliament, and ministers of the crown in Victoria.

Lieut.-Col. Eaton is 90 years old and Mrs. Eaton, 83. The former is a veteran of the South African and First Great Wars.

He was a member of the legislative assembly for eight years in Alberta. He homesteaded on the prairies in 1908, and when the railway went through the area in 1913, he was asked to name the town. It was called Craigmyle, a family estate name.

Pencillings . . . from Pender

By V. SHIRLEY

Everything is coming along a month early this year. Mrs. R. G. Straker has Dutch iris in bloom in her garden — surely a record for March. . . . A nice little yarn in from Saturna last week, but, as it affects all the inner islands, we just want to mention how valuable it is to have a sympathetic member. Neither the Island Princess nor the Cy Peck had revamped their schedules for Easter to the extent of getting holiday visitors from Victoria and way points, off Saturna and back to their homes on Easter Sunday evening. All the islands went to bat and Mrs. J. Money of Saturna pressed her cause vigorously, but to no avail. In a last ditch effort she called our member. He must have muttered a few magic incantations, with an abracadabra thrown in, because in no time at all word came through that the Cy Peck would go back to Swartz Bay Sun-

ISLAND DOG DEFEATS CORGI

Salt Spring Island when it goes to the dogs really goes. The latest from the Dog Obedience Training Club is Rebel. Not satisfied with coming home with the Novice B cup from Nanaimo last week, he journeyed to Sidney on Saturday and picked up another mug.

He received 187 points out of a possible 200. He had tied with a corgi in the first round and a retrieval had to be made to pick the winner.

Classes On Flower Arrangements

Classes on flower arrangements by Frank Lyons, of Shawnigan Lake, will commence on April 3, in the United Church hall, Salt Spring Island, from 1 to 4 p.m.

The course will run about eight weeks, will have a different theme for each lesson. Free flower arrangements, settings for dinner parties, formal and informal teas, receptions and other subjects will be covered.

Everyone is invited to join and it is hoped that a large group will take advantage of this opportunity given by Mr. Lyons.

Bill Evans, of Ganges, tells of the perfect score made by his six purebred Suffolk ewes in producing 12 lambs. One ewe had triplets but with 13 being an unlucky number one of the triplets died, leaving all the mothers with twins.

Area of Salt Spring Island is small until we start looking for something. For the first time in 10 years a cougar has turned up on the island proving again that cats can swim, as it is the only way they can get here. Cougar tracks were discovered in the Mount Bruce area by Bob Akerman and his son, Ted.

Searching farther, carcasses of dead sheep were found. Mr. Dewar, government cougar hunter, is here now and is covering the area where the dead sheep were found with his pack of dogs hoping to pick up fresh tracks.

The territory where the cat can hunt is so large that it is very hard to get to the right spot at the right time.

If there were enough men tramping the hills to spot a fresh kill it would be comparatively easy to pick up the fresh trail. As it is, it must be done the hard way and Mr. Dewar must wait until the cat returns to an area that he has under surveillance.

In the meantime the killing will go on until pussy makes a mistake and gets in the spot where the dogs will get his scent. Mr. Akerman and other shepherds who run stock on the southern end of the island will not know until all their animals are rounded up how many they have lost.

ISLAND STUDENTS PERFORM OUTSTANDING OPERETTA

Operetta, "An Old Kentucky Garden", based on the music of Stephen Foster, was well performed by senior students of Salt Spring Island high school on March 22, 23 and 24, at Mahon Hall, Ganges.

It was not expected that an amateur production of this type would give so much pleasure, and it was with surprise and delight that spectators sat throughout the evening without once thinking of the hard chairs and bad acoustics of Mahon Hall.

The students and all those who worked so hard to make this operetta a success, deserve better accommodations. The fact that they put their show across so well calls for more than mere congratulations.

Perhaps the songs of Stephen Foster, that are known to both young and old, went a long way towards setting the mood. The songs, blended into the story as it unfolded, getting away from that fitted pattern that is sometimes so apparent in an operetta.

The casting of the show was good. It was not a story that demanded a star. All the principals had to do their best, and it is surprising that there is so much talent in a school as small as Salt Spring high.

Mention must be made of Gladys Patterson as Jeanie of the light brown hair, Marcia Sober as Joy with her troubled love affair, and Marguerite Gear as Hannah, thrice a widow.

COMEDY
The right degree of comedy was put in here. Bruce Rogon was the hero, even though from the north; Charlie Butt acted Phillip with financial difficulties; Erling Jorgensen impersonated Colonel Staunton, poor but proud, and Dent LaFleur was the beloved troubadour himself.

Other excellent members of the cast were Joe Caldwell as the money lender, Buzzard, a name that suited him; Ron Bonar as Henry Blow, a prospector who develops a fondness for Hannah; McJundah, the Hindu magician, played with perfection by Georgina Burge, whose costume and disguise kept the audience wondering.

All in all it was an outstanding show.

The producer, Mrs. A. J. Hepburn; director, Mrs. W. Seymour and dramatic coach, J. M. Evans can take a bow for the success of their efforts. Costumes were the result of work by Mrs. J. Smith and her home economics helpers. Scenery, another very good project was produced by Alan Waterfall. J. Smith with help from industrial arts was responsible for the scenery proper and lighting.

Choreography was under the direction of Miss O. Mount. Mrs. E. J. Ashlee was accompanist. The student council had presented her with a plant as a token of their appreciation during the week of the musical festival.

Mrs. R. C. Hill was in charge of make-up. Publicity was done by grade 10 pupils and programs were under the direction of Bruce Rogon.

Door manager Steve LaFortune, stage manager Allan Waterfall with Don Sharpe as assistant, lighting technician Leslie Wagg and ushers in charge of Heather Anderson also contributed to the great success.

Farewell Party For Denise Crofton

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morris entertained at a cocktail party on Friday, March 17, at Harbour House, in honor of their daughter Wendy's birthday, and as a farewell party for Mr. Denis Crofton, who is leaving shortly on a four-month visit to England.

Daffodils and spring blossoms were the theme of the party. The party was held, with old and new friends greeting one another. The toast to Wendy on her birthday was given by her uncle, Lieut. Col. D. Crofton, and Bishop Wilson proposed the toast to Denise Crofton, wishing her a happy voyage and a pleasant holiday.

RESOLUTIONS ARE PASSED

Two resolutions were passed at the joint meeting of the transportation committees of the Chambers of Commerce of the Gulf Islands, held on Friday at Harbour House.

A request to the government for a ferry schedule similar to last summer's schedule with the exception of a later trip on Fridays and Mondays for the other islands. Summer schedule to commence at the beginning of Daylight Saving Time was also requested by the chambers.

Circle Meets On Salt Spring

Vesuvius Bay Circle of the Anglican Women's Auxiliary held their regular monthly meeting on Monday, Mar. 20, at the home of Miss Muriel Harrington, with 18 members present.

Mrs. G. H. Holmes and Miss Kate Motherwell took the devotional period. Plans were completed for the donation tea to be held this year at the home of Mrs. W. Flewin, with Mrs. L. C. Lambert convening. The date set for the tea is April 12.

NEXT BINGO ON APRIL 7

Jackpot is now up to $32 for the next bingo party of the Salt Spring C.W.L. to be held April 7. The party held on Wednesday, Mar. 22, had a splendid crowd. With the informality and pleasant reception these evenings have grown to become a pleasant place to meet friends, play your bingo games and have good refreshments.

FILBERT CRISPY BUNS

1. Scald ½ c. milk; cool to lukewarm. Measure ½ c. lukewarm water; stir in 1 tsp. granulated sugar. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 mins., then stir well.

2. Cream ½ c. butter or Blue Bonnet Margarine; gradually blend in ½ c. lightly-packed brown sugar and ½ tsp. salt. Add 2 eggs, 1 at a time, beating in well after each addition. Mix in dissolved yeast, lukewarm milk and ½ c. pre-sifted all-purpose flour. Beat until smooth and elastic. Work in sufficient additional flour to make a soft dough—about 2 c. more. Knead dough on floured board until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl. Grease top. Cover. Let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk—about 1½ hours. Punch down dough. Turn out and knead until smooth. Divide into 2 equal portions. Cover with a tea towel; let rest 10 mins.

3. Combine 1 c. granulated sugar and 1 c. finely-chopped filberts. Roll out 1 portion of dough into a 12-inch square. Brush generously with melted butter or margarine; sprinkle with ½ c. of the filbert mixture. Roll up jelly-roll fashion; seal seam. Cut roll into 12 equal slices. Place slices, cut side down, on a sugar-sprinkled cookie sheet. Repeat with second portion of dough. Cover with a tea towel. Chill ½ hour.

4. Sprinkle baking board with filbert mixture; roll out each pinwheel of dough on the sprinkle, turning once, to a diameter of 4 inches. Place on greased cookie sheets. Cover with a tea towel. Let rise until almost doubled in bulk—about 45 mins. Bake in a hot oven (425°) 5 mins., then turn buns with spatula and continue to bake until golden—about 5 mins. longer. Yield: 2 dozen buns.

Red Cross Gains Enthusiastic Support

By VIVIAN COWAN
Although March is known as Red Cross month, this world-wide organization works all year round, and the help being given by the Junior Red Cross is increasing each year.

Along with thousands of students all across the country, Sidney district schools are doing their part and taking an active interest in this humanitarian work.
At the North Saanich high school, the Junior Red Cross Club, under the direction of Miss T. Miller and Mrs. E. Ford, has become a full-fledged school club, with all grades and most students taking an active part.

Each grade decides on its own project for fund raising, and ideas dreamed up by the students show considerable originality.

Included in this year's program have been dime dances, apple sales, bake sales and horse-trading as the students offer their services for small jobs in the district and donate their earnings to the fund.

Hard-working officers for the club this year include Linda Douna, lumbia and some of the western states assemble to discuss ways and means of helping the Red Cross. This year the conference will be held at Royal Roads in Victoria.

Sidney elementary school, too, has its Junior Red Cross and though the younger students are more limited in their activities, they too do their share.

JUNIOR ACTIVITIES

Apple sales and hot dog sales, a large and beautifully arranged doll show, and a newspaper composed and edited by the grade 6 boys and mimeographed and sold at school have been the fund raising activities so far this year.

Donations have been made to the Crippled Children's fund and the Congo fund, and at present the students are working on health kits, the kit or bag being made from remnants donated by Standard Furniture, and the contents including face cloth, soap, toothbrush, pins, and varied small items.

The students are working under the direction of Miss Ann Smith this year, who has announced that an award for 12 years of service with the Junior Red Cross is to be made to Miss Doris Williamson, of the Sid-president; Elaine Erickson, secretary and Joan Scantlebury, treasurer.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Some of the work accomplished by the club includes health kits assembled and shipped for use overseas; gift stockings filled and donated to a local orphanage at Christmas time; a large collection of toys shipped to Chile; donations to the Crippled Children's fund, and the $55 profit from the recent bake sale in Sidney sent to the International Fund and earmarked "Congolese".

Each year the council endeavors to send a delegate to the annual Junior Red Cross conference when members from all over British Co-

Scouts And Cubs To Launch Bottle Drive Here On April 8

Announcement of a district-wide bottle drive on Saturday, April 8, has been made by D. R. Cook, president of the Tsartlip District Council for the Cubs and Scouts.

Scouting organizations are extremely limited in the manner in which they may raise funds, and a bottle drive is one of the few approved methods.

Tsartlip district, which was created a year ago during the re-organization of the Greater Victoria district, covers the Saanich Peninsula, from Royal Oak to Lands End. Included are 105 Boy Scouts in seven troops, and 275 Cubs in 12 packs, with a total of 42 leaders.

Dog Trial At Sanscha

North Saanich Dog Obedience Training Club held a very successful trial in Sanscha Hall last Saturday. Many dogs with their handlers participated. Over half of them came from affiliated clubs.

Highest score was gained by Monty, handled by Mrs. McLaughlin of the Greater Victoria Club, competing in Novice A class. The Hudson cup for top dog in beginners' class was won by Brutus, handled by W. Kinghorn.

Other winners were Novice B. Rebel, Mrs. Hoffman; Open B. Della, Major Smart; highest graduation winner, Dorian, Mamie Milburn.

School is out for Easter holidays but will re-open on Thursday night, Apr. 6, at 8 o'clock at Sanscha Hall. Anyone interested in improving his dog's education is cordially invited to this meeting when new classes will be formed.

All through their school years, aided and encouraged by their teachers, students do their part as good citizens to help in the world-wide and worthwhile work of the Red Cross.

So Much More Full Of Meaning

By BEA HAMILTON

Sometimes I think a little child can write more meaning into a poem than many an adult. From my grand-niece, Althea Hamilton-

Home of Union Bay, B.C., comes a verse which fits in with the lovely Easter season.

Althea is 10 years old and she writes:

GOD'S LOVE

I love God, and God loves me,
God gave me the eyes to see
The birds, the bees,
The flowers and trees—yes,
I love God and He loves me.

And here's another gay little verse—Althea calls this one:

MY FAVORITE STAR

I see my favorite star at night
A-sparkling in the sky,
It winks at me, and blinks at me
As if it had an eye.

FAMILY COMEDY AND WILD WEST PICTURE AT GEM

—David Niven, Doris Day

Doris Day and David Niven portray the harassed parents of four lovable but mischief-loving youngsters in "Please Don't Eat the Daisies", which will be shown at the Gem Theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Mar. 30, 31 and Apr. 1.

It is Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's film version of the best seller by Jean Kerr, dealing with the humor and excitement involved in the incidents of daily family life. Co-starring are Janis Paige as a musical comedy actress, Spring Byington as an appealing mother-in-law and Richard Haydn as a stage producer. Famed comedienne Patsy Kelly returns to the screen in this hilarious color production. She impersonates a day maid who finds that work in a household of four boys can be a nightmare. The boys are played by Charles Herbert, Stanley Livingston, Flip Mark and Baby Geller. An Euterpe production for MGM, produced by Joe Pasternak, the picture was directed by Charles Walters from a screen play by Isobel Lennart. Miss Day has two song numbers, the title song and "Anyway the Wind Blows". A new four-legged star is also featured in the comedy. It is Hobo, a combination of poodle and German Shepherd. Well known magazines, such as Saturday Evening Post, Coronet, Good Housekeeping, Red Book, Ladies Home Journal and others, hailed the film as one of the great successes of the movie industry.

Different type of wild west picture, "Guns of the Timberland", will be featured at the Gem Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Apr. 3, 4 and 5. The Warner Bros. color film stars Alan Ladd, Jeanne Crain, Gilbert Roland and Frankie Avalon. The screen play tells the story of the struggle between the two original main industries on the American continent, logging and cattle ranching. Twice, heavy snowstorms in the usually sunny month of May, send the movie makers indoors when Robert Webb was shooting on location in Quincy, Calif. Art director John Beckmann built a logging camp in the thickly wooded area. Tents were erected, including one with a fully equipped kitchen. The scenic Feather River country in Northern California with lofty pine trees and the snowcapped Sierra Nevada mountains are the backdrop for this exciting story of lumbering and ranch operations at the end of the last century.

Complete Skeleton

Unearthed On Salt Spring

By BEA HAMILTON

Once more, Beaver Point, Salt Spring Island, comes to the fore with a startling discovery. This time it is a skeleton. It was right in the back yard of Rudy Olson who was digging his garden. "There he lay; grinning at me," says Mrs. Olson, very calmly.

Although they consider it to be an ancient Indian buried many years ago, they phoned the local R.C.M.P. The skeleton was found to be 5 ft. 7 ins., and it had a perfect set of teeth.

SUCCESSFUL BEAN SUPPER AT FULFORD

Some 260 hungry people turned up at the annual bean supper put on by the Beaver Point Community at the hall on Saturday, Mar. 25.

Though there was only standing room for several guests, it wasn't long before every person was fed. The ladies of Beaver Point worked hard and this event was one of the most successful bean feasts since it started in 1953.

People, as usual, came from everywhere on the island as well as from Saturna and Vancouver Island. The proceeds came to $334 and there were entertainments on the side such as bingo, in the hands of Dr. L. Lambert and Messrs Tom Butt and John Klassen.

The home cooking stall in charge of Mrs. W. Y. Stewart and Miss D. Anderson was busy. Mrs. A. Stevens convoked the bean supper. Miss Nan Ruckle was social convener. Miss Gwen Ruckle was responsible for the lovely decorations of spring flowers on the tables and around the room, and the guests enjoyed the lovely wall on her artistic murals on the walls.

MUSEUM?

Most of the camping points on Salt Spring were camping places of Indians long before any white person came along and they seemed to bury their dead anywhere and everywhere. The Olsens are practically newcomers. They bought the Don Fraser property two years ago. I doubt if any of the old-timers could have sounded quite so undisturbed. The skeleton was taken to Victoria by the R.C.M.P. on Sunday where at the museum it probably will find a final resting place.

The cooks, who turned out such delicious beans and such to be congratulated on their efforts. No wonder people come again and again. This community can give beans and make people like it.

Andy Stevens and Fred Saunders sold tickets at the door and G. Henry Ruckle, Jr., kept the coffee cups filled. Many others helped and all did an excellent job.

The door prize, a hamper, was won by Bernard Dodd of Beddis Road. Second prize was won by Ken King and the third was taken by Mrs. J. Tomlinson. W. F. Thorburn of Ganges won the draw.—B.H.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pew and Miss Felicity returned to North Vancouver on Saturday, after readying the home of Mrs. A. Keiller, Mrs. Pew's mother, for rental. Mrs. Keiller is unable to return to the island, due to illness.

Tony Emanuele has returned to the island after a week's absence of some weeks, in Vancouver.

Mrs. D. Murphy spent the week-end in Vancouver, where she attended the christening of her grandson, Peter Bennett, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Bennett.

Some 20 persons took in the high school opera at Ganges on Friday night and had nothing but praise for the presentation. A special trip of the Cy Peck returned all islands' patrons to their homes after the production.

Scotsman Visits Mother In Sidney

Win. McGraw arrived on Saturday morning by jet from Glasgow, Scotland, to visit his mother, Mrs. Susan Duncan and his sister, Miss M. McGraw, 9806 Fifth St.

He was accompanied from Vancouver by his brother, John, who is also a guest. Brother Alex will arrive on Wednesday from Santa Barbara, Calif., and will stay for a week.

This is the first time in 30 years the brothers have been together. The reunion will partly be to celebrate their mother's birthday.

Mr. McGraw enjoyed his trip to Canada and as he will be here until June 14, he plans to see as much as possible of this part of the world.

Passengers were told during the trip to Canada that they were 31,000 feet above sea level, travelling at a speed of 550 miles per hour. The temperature outside their cabin windows was 73 deg. Fah. below zero. "We appeared to be standing still," said the traveller.

He is a retired member of the Naval Ordnance Inspection Department. His son, Ian, was goalkeeper for the Arbroath football team in Scotland and was later transferred to Leicester City in England. His brother, John McGraw, known to many in the district, was trainer for the Boeing Soccer Club in the season 1941-1942 when the team was winner of the B.C. championship.

After pleading not guilty, Leonard William Rawluk, Vancouver, was convicted of careless operation of motor vehicle. He was given one week to pay a fine of $100 plus costs.

New Record Is Set At Sidney

Malcolm Bissenden spilled the maples for a single game score of 360 at Sidney Lanes last week and created a new house record. His total for three games was 692.

A member of Thunderbird's C1 team, Mr. Bissenden registered 15 pins in his first frame, filled the next eight frames with strikes and collected 15 pins in the final frame for his 360 total.

Mr. Bissenden's score tops that of Ken Soles, who chalked up a 350 single game count in open play.

OPPOSITE VIEWS

Two Groups Formulate Policy On School Building

Two separate meetings were held last week in connection with the forthcoming school building by-law in Saanich School District.

Diametrically opposite views were considered and two different recommendations were formulated for presentation to the board of school trustees.

Ratepayers' organizations of North Saanich offered their support of any by-law which offered no provisions beyond the construction of classroom accommodation.

MEETING AT PRINCE GEORGE

Prince George will be the location this year of the Girl Guide provincial meeting, for the first time in its history.

Delegates from the Saanich division hope to attend and will travel by bus. This was discussed at the monthly divisional meeting, held on Wednesday, Mar. 22, at the home of Mrs. W. D. Reith, Wallace Drive, Brentwood.

There is to be a work bee at Kingswood, the division camp this week-end. Grateful thanks are extended to all the men who have helped and are helping the Guide movement in this way.

Following the meeting refreshments were served in the Brentwood United Church Hall.

Local association to the Guides and Brownies at Beaver Lake, will hold a daffodil brunch, at St. Michael's Church Hall, West Saanich Rd., on April 5, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Phone Fire Department For Help

Fire Chief C. E. Rowles of Central Saanich Volunteer Fire Department has appealed to all residents of the municipality to phone the fire department for emergency ambulance service.

The fire chief recalled that on various occasions the emergency call was directed to the police department and that unnecessary delay resulted.

Fire Chief Rowles pointed out that the ambulance is operated by the Central Saanich Volunteer Fire Department and not by the police.

NATIVE GERMAN WINS GOLDEN GAVEL IN CONTEST

For the first time in the 16 years that it has been up for competition, the Golden Gavel was won by a woman, and Mrs. S. (Julia) Fone, of Oakdale Ave., Sidney is proud and excited to be that woman.

This annual speech contest, open to all speaking club members with less than 15 months instruction, was held on Monday evening in Victoria City Hall, before a large audience.

Elimination speak-offs, held during the previous week, had whittled the 48 contestants down to eight and Mrs. Fone was the only woman competing against two toastmasters and five members of the Royal Canadian Navy Speaking Club.

A member of Madrona Toastmistress Club of Sidney, Mrs. Fone gives credit to her husband for his constant assistance and to toastmistress training, which she claims has done more for her in six months than anything in the two years since she came to Canada.

SURPRISE

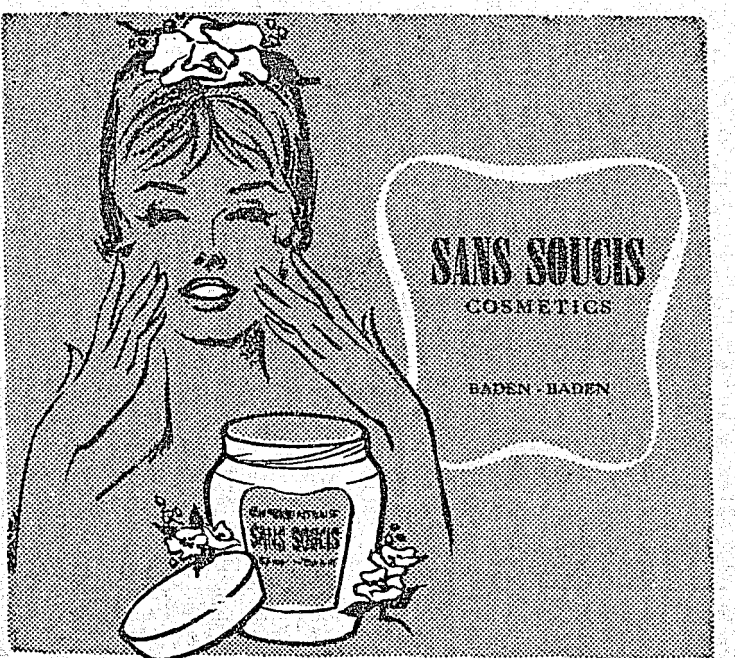

Mrs. Fone speaks with a delightful accent brought from her native Germany, but the construction and subject material for her speeches would be a credit to anyone. Her winning speech was entitled, "Why Grow Old?"

"It was such a surprise," she said. "They announced third place, then second then the winner and I just couldn't believe it. It was such a wonderful feeling."

She is more thrilled with the fact that she could accomplish the task she set for herself in learning to speak well, than the actual winning. However, she will wear with pride the tiny golden gavel lapel pin.

Canadian Children Need More Physical Education

Constitution and by-laws of the Salt Spring Island Parent-Teachers' Association formed the principal item up for discussion when the P.T.A. met on March 20.

It was a well attended meeting, with 50 people present and the new constitution and by-laws, drawn up by the committee appointed, were read and approved and have been sent to the provincial federation for their endorsement.

It was pointed out that any adult in the community is welcome to become a member of the P.T.A.

It is not restricted to those having children in school. Everyone is welcome to attend the meetings, although non-members are not permitted to vote. Resolutions to be presented at the coming provincial conference were discussed.

Ideas on uniform dress for school, protests against some types of advertising and driving instruction came in for lively debate. Secretary of the local P.T.A. will be a delegate to the meeting.

An improved physical education program to be introduced in the coming term was outlined by J. Wickens. More emphasis will be given to physical participation of all pupils than in the past, this being one of the conclusions reached in a nation-wide survey that revealed that the Canadian youth lacks the physical skills and stamina of European children.

More participation and less spectator sport is thought to be the answer to the problem. There is a need for better facilities and equipment and a proper auditorium-gymnasium is needed badly.

The various bursaries, loans and scholarships available to students desiring to continue their education, either academic or vocational, was given by Miss M. Oulton.

All sincere students have an excellent chance of obtaining assistance and Miss Oulton urged that the students and their parents contact her for information and discussion on these matters.

Mrs. R. C. Hill, who was in charge of the program, is to be thanked for the splendid manner in which it was presented.
